

Please complete the form and necessary attachments and submit along with other application materials on designated deadline to:

MU Journalism Abroad Office
 134 Neff Annex--Missouri School of Journalism
 Columbia, MO 65211

The School has several scholarships for Study Abroad, Washington and New York programs. Eligible applicants should be fulltime students in the School of Journalism who have completed at least six hours of journalism coursework or are otherwise eligible for an MU Journalism Abroad program. Preference is given to Juniors and Seniors. Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need. Scholarship winners may be asked to volunteer for the Global Programs Office within six months of returning. Volunteer activities may include (but are not limited to) representing programs at the study abroad fair, assisting incoming exchange students, predeparture orientations for outgoing study abroad students, etc.

Full Name: _____ MU Student Number: _____

Gender: _____ Ethnicity (optional): _____

Interest Area: _____ Circle One: FR SO JR SR MA

Projected Graduation Date: _____ Self-Reported GPA: _____

Program Semester/Year: _____ Program: _____

Permanent Address: Local Address:

Cell Phone: (____) _____ MU Email: _____

List all previous travel abroad with family or friends, other special programs, or independently:

List relevant volunteer or work experiences:

Are you currently working part-time? Yes No If so, where: _____

Do you have a current FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) on file? Yes No

List 2 MU faculty references: _____

*Attach to this form a resume and a one-page, 250-word (maximum) explanation of your need for assistance to study abroad or in Washington/New York and of any special circumstances that should be taken into consideration.